- Five bedrooms and five full baths
- Spectacular water and mountain vistas

Perfectly framed by a beautiful garden with lush landscaping and tall trees for the utmost seclusion and privacy, this magnificent villa and guesthouse provide fantastic spaces for living and entertaining. Various seating areas, including an expansive porch with a fireplace, and the swimming pool with its breathtaking views out over the lake towards Italy, deliver wonderful sanctuaries from which to make the most of the enviable surroundings. Adding to the appeal of the property is a superb wine cellar and a wine-tasting room within the spacious guesthouse, offering further relaxing leisure options when hosting family and friends. All this is situated on a sunny south-facing slope above Locarno, with the old town and the Piazza Grande only a few minutes' drive away. The golf courses at Losone and Ascona are also within easy reach of the residence. Accessed via a private road, there is a four-car garage and covered parking for an additional vehicle, too, making this as convenient as it is sublime.
