

InsideOut

Issue 110 March 15 - April 14 2013 Dh15

www.insideoutmagazine.ae

SPECIAL FEATURE
Kitchens

Global Designs

Cosmopolitan Dubai homes
inspired by travel

93

Funky and functional kitchen
must-haves

Orient Express

Bring on-trend Far Eastern style into your home

Tuned into Design: An exclusive with singer-turned-designer Lenny Kravitz

Palma, Mallorca

Dh52 million

Villa Son Fida is a southwest-facing home with amazing views across the city and Bay of Palma to the open Mediterranean beyond. Situated on a flat, 2,000-square-metre plot, the 700-square-metre home is set over three floors with a guest apartment, fitness and hobby room on the lower ground floor; a kitchen, large living room, informal television room, dining room, office, library, guest bathroom and master en-suite bedroom with dressing room on the ground floor; and three en-suite bedrooms with terraces on the first floor. Outside you'll find a large, covered terrace, heated swimming pool and beautifully landscaped gardens.

www.mallorca-sothebysrealty.com

Marrakech, Morocco

Dh57.3 million

This magical property, named The Secret, is inspired by Morocco's finest palaces and the tales in One Thousand and One Nights. An entertainer's dream, The Secret is an astounding 2,712-square-metre palatial residence built by American architect Kris Ruhs in a traditional Moroccan style with a modern twist. It offers exquisite detailing and finishes including fine tiling, stone work and hand-forged metals. Set on 2,200 square metres of land with tropical gardens and fish ponds, the house has elevator access, eight bedrooms, 14 bathrooms, a huge gourmet kitchen with centre island, a walk-in pantry, a large formal dining room, dramatic living room with fireplace, stately library with wood-panelled ceiling, three hammams and studio spaces as well as an indoor swimming pool.

www.wetaginternational.com

